

AgiiPlus Inc. and Goldenbridge Acquisition Limited Mutually Agree to Terminate Merger Agreement

SHANGHAI, CHINA and SINGAPORE — May 3, 2022 — AgiiPlus Inc. (“AgiiPlus”), a leading work solutions provider for rapid-change, quick-pivot enterprises in China and Singapore, and Goldenbridge Acquisition Limited (“Goldenbridge”) (NASDAQ: GBRG, GBRGU, GBRGW, GBRGR), a British Virgin Islands special purpose acquisition company, announced today that both companies have mutually agreed to terminate the previously announced merger agreement, effective immediately.

AgiiPlus stated that the decision was made to promptly respond and adjust to the current market conditions and that it will continue to actively seek viable opportunities to support the future growth.

Driven by the vast market potential for flexible and comprehensive work solutions, AgiiPlus will continue to develop innovative technologies and to create values for enterprise customers by providing transformative services both online and offline.

About AgiiPlus

AgiiPlus is a leading one-stop work solutions provider for rapid-change, quick-pivot enterprises in China and Singapore. Relying on its proprietary technologies, AgiiPlus offers transformative working solutions to its enterprise customers, including a SaaS-based office marketplace to match enterprises with property owners, customized renovation and maintenance with smart building solutions, high-quality flexible workspace with plug-in software and on-demand enterprise services.

AgiiPlus has established an innovative business model called S²aaS - Space & Software as a Solution, which combines “Software as a Service” and “Space as a Service”. It adapts property technology, SaaS-based office marketplace and high-quality physical workspace to provide integrated work solutions and improve work efficiency for enterprise customers.
